MRS. COWGILL ON LONG HIKE HOME

Accompanied by her dog Yuma, said to be a real Arizona Gila Monster hound, Mrs. R. L. Cowgill, who has been in charge of the Los Angeles exhibit and branch of the Phoenix chamber of commerce for some time past, has started on foot for Phoenix.

The intrepid woman left Los Angeles Tuesday morning, and expects to make from ten to fifteen miles per day throughout. She is not afraid of the deserts and mountains, but is anxious to brave their dangers in their entirety.

The purpose of her pilgrimage is to collect specimens for the exhibit to be maintained at the fair at San Diego during the coming year. A letter from Mayor E. M. Capps to the mayor of Phoenix, a message from President G. A. Davidson to the chamber of commerce of Phoenix, and a note from Jos. A. Marshall president of the state and County Exhibitors association to Secretary Welsh of the local chamber of commerce, goes to make her trip strictly official.

USED SODA BOTTLES ON A COMPETITOR

When Ida Nelson had John Zanetti did not dream that her action would result in the court's ordering the county attorney to prepare a complaint charging her husband, R. L. Nelson with assault.

Zanetti and Nelson are competing grocers on South Central avenue and during the absence of the latter the former is said to have approached Mrs. Nelson and to have made a remark not becoming to perfect gentleman. Whereupon on the return of the lady's husband she promptly confided the whole story to him. Nelson is alleged to have taken the law into his own hands and to have gone into the enemy's camp armed with soda water bottles which he used to the best of his ability.

The case will be thrashed out in Justice De Souza's court at 1:20 o'clock Wednesday afternoon.

WOLF AT THE DOOR—While Phoenix was in the midst of a joyous Easter season the wolf was at its very door. For the first time in its history the board of supervisors yesterday said hereby on a wolf's hide. The wolf was captured by Trapper Glaze in the mountains of Gila Bend. Never before, say the residents of that section, has an animal come so far south. The bounty was $10.

GREENBAUM WILL—The will of Harris Greenbaum was filed in the office of the clerk of the superior court yesterday by Chalmers, Kent & Stahl. The Phoenix Savings Bank & Trust company is named as executor and half of the estate, valued at $6,250, is left to the widow, Tillie Greenbaum, and during her life she is to have the income of the remaining half, which upon her death will descend to the four children of the deceased.

HAWKINS SPOKE Judge A. S. Hawkins, democratic candidate for the nomination for judge in opposition to Judge Lyman, addressed a meeting last evening in front of the city hall. The judge aimed his remarks mainly at Judge Lyman, and detailed how he came to be county attorney, succeeding G. Purdy Billard, how County Attorney Gandy came into office in succession to Mr. Lyman, and made the remark that Leon Jacobs would probably succeed Mr. Gandy. Judge Hawkins characterized this chain of successions as an "apostrophe succession" and wondered how long it was to continue.

CHARGE OF RAPE—Savannah Robinson, the young colored girl who became a conspicuous figure in the alleged election frauds, and who is now being held in the county jail as a witness, yesterday swore to a complaint charging Frank McDonald with rape. The girl, who has been paroled from the reform school, will be sent to the Crittenden Home. McDonald was arrested by Deputy Sheriff J. T. Murphy. His case was arranged in Justice Parker's court, waived examination and was bound over to the superior court in the sum of $500.

Arizona Good Roads Association to Meet With Highway Engineers Here on May 15 and 16.

The preparation of a program for the annual meeting of the Arizona Good Roads association on May 15 and 16 will be left in the hands of the president, Dwight B. Heard, and State Engineer Lamar Cobb. This was decided at yesterday's meeting of the executive and advisory committees.

The association will meet jointly with the Arizona Association of Highway Engineers.
H. W. Ashbury, head of the entertainment committee, and H. R. Trittle, chairman of the good roads committee of the Chamber of Commerce, will oversee preparations for entertaining the visiting delegates.

GOVERNOR REFUSES TO LET DIGMAN GO
Careful Investigation Discloses Fact That Technical Charge Has Little Foundation.

Governor Hunt yesterday refused to honor requisition papers asking for the return of John J. Dignam of Tucson, to San Francisco, where he is wanted on a technical charge of forgery.

The governor closely investigated the charges against Dignam and found that the money which he is alleged to have embezzled was taken with the full consent and knowledge of his employers, and that he had promised to pay it back in due time. The head of the firm having changed, Dignam was pressed for payment, and was unable to do so. The charge was then brought against Dignam.

It was brought to the governor's notice that since Dignam's residence in Tucson he has been a good citizen, is in business in the Pima county seat and has established a record of sobriety and honesty.

Phoenix, Globe and Miami. The big car carries nine passengers with comfort and ease. It will maintain close schedules, thereby making the train connections.

H. C. Parsons, manager of the company in commenting on the investment on big luxurious cars for stage line purpose stated that it was his opinion that the traffic will continue to grow on this one of the most notably scenic highways in the world. "The conditions of the stage business," said Mr. Parsons, "are such that first-class service is necessary, and the slogan will be, 'Pullman service at day coach prices.' More and more transcontinental tourists are learning of this beautiful stage trip. Local people are also realizing the joy of a trip to Roosevelt. Knowing this, we came to the conclusion that it would be a paying investment for our company to put on the highest type, largest and most comfortable riding automobiles possible."

PACKARD TWELVE ON APACHE TRAIL

The big Twin Six Packard, nine passenger touring car that has been put on the stage route to Roosevelt, Globe and Miami from Phoenix, by the Apache Trail stage company is attracting an endless amount of attention. It is the first Twin Six of several that the Apache Trail Stage company expects to place in operation between
